

Allowing large media conglomerates to monopolize the media both broadcast and print is a major danger to the freedoms which have been slowly slipping away. Even now, much of the media fails to report on issues that affect everyone because of corporate funding for the medium.

I oppose changing the current allowable ownership of media outlets.